RICH SOCIALISTS AND THE CALL.-Writes a Wage Fund contributor: "How is it about our rich comrades, like Sloxes, Wilsnire, runter and others? Can they not come to the rescue of The Call?" and so on, it is worth while to note that sometimes men who are reputed to be rich are not so. Also, that a comrade may have given liberally to The Call without the fact being widely known. Further, that a comrade of wealth of appearsment and indulgence to of appearsment and some the country of the Labor Movement and for How is it about our rich comrades. like Stokes, without the fact being widely known. Further, that a comrade of wealth of appeasement and indulgence tomay have given liberally to other activities of the Labor Movement and for

The Call to further that cause would come forward and giadly give some great gift. I felt that as soon as it was shown that there really was an army of Call workers some man who had the money and who could spare the money (and there are quite a number of them in the Socialist party), would be glad of the chance to do a noble deed and make a beautiful sacrifice to become a sister, a brother, a comrade worthy of A Working Girl. There is no other way on earth by which they could have got so much for their money as to have given five, ten or twenty thousand dollars to The Call one Day's Wage Fund. It would have bought ammunition and heavy artillery that would have enabled The Call to make its start as the greatest newspaper in America. But hene of them has done so. The Call can get along without them. Whatever else we do, we must RELY ON OURSELVES. If some rich comrade gives The Call money to help it over the places, well and good. To those who work to those who work for wages, to those who can-not live except by working for wages—to the wage slaves The Call must look for support. You and I. reader—we will support The Call. There are now three thousand of us. We will support The Call until there are more of us. There will soon be six thousand of us. Till then, we shall be on guard. If a rich man becomes a sincere Socialist and helps us, well and good. But let us place no reliance on any such contingency. Let us rely on ourselves wholly. # SPAIN'S NEW CABINET TO BE SHORT-LIVED

Premier Moret Reactionary at Heart and Not Able to Save Alfonso's Throne.

MADRID, via Hfendaye, Oct. 22 .-29.50 44.25 73.53 senor Moret and his Liberal cabinet today began the consideration of modifying the governmental repression in Barcelona and Gerena, that become almost unbearable. Just how cannot be definitely stated, but it is generally understood that the government's policy will be lightened only pacify the country...

There is no doubt today that Moet's appointment is the result of political thimble-rigging and that the life of the Liberal cabinet will be short. Moret, while nominally a short. Moret, while nominally a Liberal, is in reaality the most reac-tionary of the leaders of that party. No radical reform is to be expected from him, and the general opinion is that he will merely endeavor to con-ciliate the factions whose dissensions threaten the life of the Spanish gov-ernment. That he will succeed, no me believes.

Moret, as an administrator, has proved himself utterly incompetent. Under the orders of the King, who trying to avoid the responsibility Francisco Ferrer's execution and other acts of repression by claiming that ex-Premier Maura acted withou his sanction. Moret will be forced to make some move toward remedying conditions in the Spanish interior Every acton along this line will be met with lively opposition by the deposed Conservatives. At the same time Moret will be working against his own inclination, as he believed firmly in the Maura policy of repression. As a consequence politicians are certain that the new Moret cabine

Fusion Will Soon Disintegrate.

If it does not it will antagonize the Republican and Democratic elements of the Republican-Democratic-Liberal fusion, which now supports it the fusion will disintegrate and the cabinet will fall. This would be cer-tain to result in Mauret's reinstatement and a resumption of the revolu-tionry agitation, which may quiet for a time under a Liberal government. Radical members of the Cortes, like the Deputy Seriand, who is also editor of the Espana Nueva, announce their intention to fight the new ministry because of its monarchial tendencies. They predict a series of swift changes, bringing about a situation like that which started with the insurrection in the started with the insurrection in the fleet in 1868 and culminated in 1873 the abdication of King Amadeus the enlistment of a short-lived republic.

The Liberal papers are filled today with rejoicings over what they term the end of the tyrannical rule of Maura. El Pais, a Republican organ, hopes that the war in Morocco will be brought to a prompt and honora-ble conclusion, "to avoid the ruin of the country." It also demands the passage of anti-Clerical laws, similar to those in France.

The correspondent understands that the program of the new Cabinet in-cludes the immediate re-establishment of constitutional guarantees at Barcelona and Gerona, the immediate suppression of the censorship exmovemen's of troops to Morocco and the expediting of the Riff campaign. It will grant amnesty to political and press offenders and will give the widest publicity to the details of the trial of Professor Ferrer.

The French press today hails with satisfaction the fall of the Maura Cabinet in Spain. It is especially pleased that the possibility of Frenco-Spanish complications regarding af-fairs in Morocco appears to have passed. The Socialist papers consider that the defeat of the conservative government was due more to indigna-tion manifested abroad than to the stic situation.

5.000 Waistmakers Will Go Out-No Yel, but Soon.

The general strike of the 25,000 orranized Ladies' Waistmakers of this city, which was resolved upon at a special delegate meeting held Thursday night has been postponed as the result of the action taken at a regular meeting of the union last night.

full swing, with the odds all in favor of victory for the union, as the bosses have been unable to get any competent scabs, although they have had employment agencies in various sections of the city in the hope of getting some real ple makers, but they have met with very keen disappointment, as all the scabs thus far corralled had to be sent away one by one, as they were incapable of making even imitation pies. This was clearly demonstrated yesterday when the street cleaning department removed twenty barrels of scabe-made ples from the shop of the New York

Ple Company, of $2 Sullivan street. The union has been plugging along meanwhile getting hold of the de-mand for union-made pies. Yester-day they had sixteen wagons out and sold 24,000 twenty-cent pies, and it is hoped that more wagons will be out today, as the demand for union-made pies continues to keep ahead of the union's ability to supply the demand. The union is now at work outlining plans for the opening of a bakery which will bake milk pies, and it is expected that it will open by Tuesday. Caterer Loewenstein, of the Tomb

Restaurant, called at the union office at 142 East 7th street, yesterday and placed an order for union pies, as the prisoners refuse to eat scab pies. The union has started an agitation to force the bosses to remove the beds of scabs from the bakeshops, as it is a direct violation of the law to perdepartment to investigate this matter. The Knickerbocker Biscuit

TWO CENTS A COPY FOR THE CALL.—Says a Wage Fund con-utor: "We always harp on the poor man, and yet are not ashamed to ask of him TWO CENTS for our paper, when he can buy a bigger and better paper for one cent." The noor man can buy a bigger and better paper for one cent." The poor man can buy a bigger paper than The Call for one cent. The poor man cannot buy a better paper than The Call for any price. On this subject I can only give my individual opinion. In New York city it will probably never be possible for a daily paper to pay for itself if sold for one cent, unless it carries a great deal of commercial advertising. Many friends of The Call are anxious to have the paper increase its circulation so that it may get sufficient advertising to onable it to reduce its price to one cent a copy. I am anxious to have the Call increase its circulation so that it may throw out the advertising it now has. I believe the workingman can and I believe the workingman will pay two cents for a Labor Paper. In so far as I have any personal influence, I shall use it to increase the number of The Call's readers. The moment it has sufficient readers to support it instead of reducing the relief of The Call is one cent. I would have out of the paper all advertising prire of The Call to one cent, I would bar out of the paper all advertising matter except such as might be called Labor Advertising—as, for example, advertisements of Union Meetings, Union Labels, BOOKS, Socialist Party and Trade Union entertainments, LECTURES, BOYCOTT and STRIKE NOTICES, ets. Sad to say, just now The Call has to charge two cents a copy and needs advertising—and then some. But the day will come—it will, truly. Till then, reader, you and I, and the Three Thousand. A true Labor Paper must be published for its readers, not for its advertisers. So important do I consider its readers as compared with its advertisers, that I want The Call to have no advertisers.

Tomorrow I shall take up a number of other criticisms and write of them in The Sunday Call. This is your pay day-if you have not yet place them in The sunday Call. This is your pay day—if you have not yet placed your name in the list with the Three Thousand contributors to The Call's One Day's Wage Fund, there might still be time to get in line with the supplemental list. > The Court of Appeals at Albany vesterday cut down the debt limit of the city of New York, fixed by the referee. General B .F. Tracy, from $106,205,714 to $54,759,646.

> The reduction is due to the inclusion by the Court of Appeals, of $54.ready charged against the city as 933.92.

This leaves to be included in the gin of unused bonded indebtedness.

The debt limit case was inaugu rated in June, 1908, by Jefferson M. Levy, who began a taxpayer's action for an injunction restraining the city from approving certain contracts for the Fourth avenue, Brooklyn, sub-way. Similar actions were instituted way. Similar actions were instituted by David Meyer and the Fleischmann Realty and Construction Company.

Didn't Like Tracy's Decision.

Justice Blanchard appointed General Tracy referee, and his findings made public last April. The city administration. including the Mayor and Comptroller Metz, con-tended that the city's debt limit was so low as to absolutely prevent the building of subways. An appeal was taken by the city from General Tracy's findings, and that appeal the city loses by yesterday's decision.

In view of the fact that there is to e voted upon by the people a week from next Tuesday the constitutional amendment eliminating dock and subway bonds from the debt limit computation, the Court of Appeals apparently realized the urgency the situation in handing down the delar decsion day.

It has been estimated that if this proposed constitutional amendment is adopted it will make available $125,-000.000 for subway $55.000,000 wi addition to the General Tracy's report, as revised by the Court of Appeals yesterday, declares is the present borrowing ca-

While the tools of these capitalists called the government, were placing the treasury of the United States at the disposal of Morgan, what was the government doing for the millions of workers thrown into enforced idleness and destitution? By June, 1908 it was conservatively estimated that perhaps five million workers in the United States were out of work, and could get no work. Reports from the charity organizations in every city showed that the cities were overcrowded with the homeless and unemployed. Destitution was rife, and cases of starvation of men, women and children, were more frequent than the official reports dared reveal. L'Humanite, the French Socialist daily, as well as some Republican papers, proclaimed the innocence of Ferrer. The Parisians' potent storm sent its powerful cries of "Liberty for Ferrer, Ferrer is innocent," across the continent. Then all over Europe protests were unanimous. Beautiful solidarity in defence of justice was shown in every city where there are human beings who love justice and liberty and Milan best understood the situation, and immediately organized general strikes.

Ferrer Sentenced to Death.

After a month of "incommunicado" (American Socialists who know the rbarous system of Mexican justice must know what "incommunicado" means) Ferrer was told that he might communicate with outside friends and name counsel, as his trial would take place within eight days. Immediately he wrote to the English press a letter from which I take these para-"I protest vehemently against the

When Ferrer wrote this letter he was very far from thinking that by the time his moving appeal could find its way through the English press he be a dead man.

The mockery of a trial only was given the Spanish educator. Where no witnesses were called, where the charges rested on documents obviously forged and on scraps of old writings and on reported conversations, where the tribunal itself had instructions to kill, what would be the result? Murder.

EFFECTIVE INTERNATIONALISM.

The futlity of superannuated divisions of race and nationality in the face of the modern unifying forces of industry and commerce has been manifested in a most impressive manner in the Ferrer case.

On the one hand, the assassination of Ferrer called forth a universal cry of indignation, horror, and even rage from all the progressive elements of the population in every civilized country. On the other hand, the conservative and reactionary elements everywhere were united in either expressing direct approval of the murder or in deploring the "fit of insanity," as they termed it, of the excitable masses. The Ferrer case, said the conservative press with one voice, was an exclusively Spanish affair, and it was a breach of international propriety and decorum for foreigners to pass judgment upon it.

But the rude working masses cared not a rap for the polite rules of the international cheating game known as diplomacy. The "modern barbarians," of whose destructive influence upon civilization and culture the self-styled educated classes profess to be in eternal dread, insisted upon giving expression to the voice of justice and humanity. They even went further and adopted measures for the SECRETS OF THIS CAMPAIGN infliction of punishment upon the assassins. Among these measures was the declaration of a boycott on Spanish goods-the boycott that our Wall Street President pronounces to be in violation of all law,

The international action of the working masses has already borne fruit. The conservative ministry of Spain was forced to resign. The Madrid correspondent of the London Times attributes the fall of the cabinet to the demonstrations abroad. And although the Liberal party in Spain is not much more advanced in its views than its Conservative rival for the sweets of office, nevertheless it is an nounced that the Spanish Democrats and Republicans have decided to support the new cabinet. This decision is based on their expectation that repression in Catalonia, the centre of the uprising of last the fusion movement. They were laughing and jeering at him as a man, the constitutional guarantees be restored. It is also possible that the miserable campaign in Morocco, the direct cause of all the present troubles of Spain, will be put an end to.

Thus international action has demonstrated its efficiency in the most convincing manner. And the end is not yet. Just as in the France of the eighteenth century and in the Russia of our own day the revolution was ushered in by a series of ministerial changes, so may yet the deposition of Maura prove to be merely the first step toward the introduction of much more fundamental changes in Spanish government and society.

MEARST-GAYNOR GRAFT.

Mr. Rudolph Block, until recently Heart's Katzenjammer editor, was the intermediary in the negotiations between Hearst and Gaynor.

The Committee of One Hundred, whose virtuous members have never-oh, never, or hardly ever-rewarded their hangers-on with doze plums from the public tree, has published the results of an investigation into the record of Mr. Block's commissions. It seems that through his labors as editor of the Happy Hooligans and the Katzenjammer Kids, Mr. Block has become a great expert on the value misunderstood him, the Senator said. Hearst and Hearst himself? That is of real estate in every section of the city. In April, 1906, Mr. Block Now what was the mearing of all still a secret this? Why was Hearst not and?

Two or the was appointed by Justice Gaynor a commissioner to appraise property to be taken for the Brooklyn loop. For his arduous labors on this commission Mr. Block was paid at the rate of about $136 a sitting up to June, 1907. A commissionership in connection with the is owned by Ryan. Nobody doubt proposed Jerome avenue subway brought Mr. Block $500. A commissionership obtained in June, 1907, in connection with the proposed modification of the Lexington avenue route netted Mr. Block $3,000. Another commission in connection with the Ashokan Dam enterprise has brought in $150 for each meeting, sixty-eight meetings having been held so far, with many more to come.

We do not call attention to these facts in order to help the virtuous committee in its campaign against Hearst and Gaynor. Nor do we do this out of malice toward Mr. Block, who is not wrose than thousands of others like him who "succeed" by serving the log along. multi-millionaire editors and powerful politicians. Our sole purpose is to point out how the city's money is being squandered in a thousand secret ways, so that there is no money left for necessary schools, parks, and public improvements, or for decent wages to those who do the useful work in the city's service, such as street sweepers and gifted that they are able to bend fate forces underneath were compelling to their own will. ditch diggers, or even for fighting the spread of tuberculosis.

There are many thousands of cases like Mr. Block's in this city and state as well as throughout the country and in the national administration. "Legitimate" graft and corruption pervades every branch of the public service, which is run on the principles of private out of office and vote the representatives of the working class into business, the very principles that Gaynor, Hearst, and Bannard office.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

AN OPEN LETTER. To the New York Central Federate Union:

Gentleman-In reply to the protes of the Central Federated Union with reference to a festival held by the Socialistische Liedertafel of New York in Terrace Garden, I am requested to state that the contract with the management of Terrace Garden had been closed under strict union rules long before the Central Federated Union had ever thought of declaring Terrace Garden as an unfair establishment. and for this reason the Socialistische Liedertafel was unable to cancel the contract. Furthermore, there is no truth in your statement that we had promised last year not to engage Terrace Garden again. No such request was ever made, consequently could have made no promises. There are only two halls in Greater New York strictly union, the Labor Temple in Manhattan and the Labo Lyceum in Brooklyn.

Now, may we ask why the Central Federated Union has selected the Socialistische Liedertafel to admonishrepremand, while at the same time we find the union musicians working in Terrace Garden unmolested? Would it not be far better for the Central a small body of men just because they Terrace Garden to manage the business according to union rules, while the Central Federated Union is entirely indifferent as to the solidarity among its own unions.
